Experience in affirmative litigation in state or federal court and experience in addressing systemic issues is a plus. Civil legal aid and related advocacy experience is preferred.

- Develop collaborative working relationships with a statewide network of advocates working on similar issues; participate in advocacy task forces or work groups to address systemic issues that affect seniors, low-income persons, and communities in Washington.

- Engage with client community members and organizations, participate in legal education events for client groups, social and human services providers, engage with justice system stakeholders, and serve as a resource to other advocates on areas of current or acquired expertise.
- Utilize NJP's case management and timekeeping systems and comply with all applicable regulatory requirements and reporting needs.
- Support the work of NJP partners including the local volunteer lawyer program, private attorneys, programs serving unrepresented litigants, other legal aid providers and organizations addressing the legal needs of low-income persons.

NJP has adopted the Washington Race Equity and Justice Initiative (REJI) and is organizationally committed to fight racism and to incorporate equity and inclusion in our advocacy work and our internal systems and work environment. NJP expects all staff to uphold the REJI commitments and approach their role with a desire to learn and grow in this area.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Member of the Washington Bar, the ability to acquire membership through admission by motion, or willing and able to take next bar.
- Experience representing clients in family law or housing law is preferred.
- Applicants should be culturally competent to work with low-income client communities, communities of color, persons with limited English skills, and persons with disabilities and/or trauma.
- Bilingual English/Spanish is preferred.
- Willing and able to travel to engage with people throughout the geographic service area of Adams, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, and Okanogan counties.
