NJP is interested in qualified candidates with professional, personal and/or service experience that allows them to contribute to and support the legal aid community's commitment to race equity. Candidates must be willing to be engaged with the community to be served.

JOB DUTIES:

The staff attorney will undertake a range of duties including, but not limited to:

- Represent individuals found eligible for representation in unlawful detainer actions in Superior Court. Additionally, the staff attorney will assist individuals with unfiled unlawful detainer actions as appropriate.

- Develop collaborative working relationships with a statewide network of advocates working on rental housing related issues throughout the state.
- Engage with the communities of people at risk of eviction and participate in legal education events for groups, social and human services providers and justice system stakeholders, and serve as a resource to other advocates working on landlord-tenant and eviction related issues. Specifically, the eviction defense staff attorney will work collaboratively with rental assistance providers, dispute resolution agencies, and other community partners to ensure low-income renters have equal access to housing justice.
- Utilize NJP's case management and timekeeping systems and comply with all applicable regulatory requirements and reporting needs.

- Support the NJP's Right to Counsel work by providing coverage across counties as necessary.
- Will travel to courthouses within the region as needed.
- Support the work of NJP eviction defense partners including the local volunteer lawyer program, private attorneys, programs serving the needs of unrepresented litigants, other legal aid providers and interested parties and organizations addressing the legal needs of low-income persons.

NJP has adopted the Washington Race Equity and Justice Initiative (REJI) and is organizationally committed to fight racism and to incorporate equity and inclusion in our advocacy work and our internal systems and work environment. NJP expects all staff to uphold the REJI commitments and approach their role with a desire to learn and grow in this area.
