

Northwest Justice Project

401 Second Ave S. Suite 407
Seattle, WA 98104
Tel. (206) 464-1519
Fax 206.903.0526

Toll Free 1-888-201-1012
www.nwjustice.org

Abigail Daquiz
Executive Director

Job Announcement Staff Attorney Longview, WA

Northwest Justice Project (NJP) is a not-for-profit statewide law firm with a mission of Combating Injustice • Strengthening Communities • Protecting Human Dignity. NJP secures justice for people in or near poverty through high quality legal advocacy that promotes the long-term well-being of low-income individuals, families and communities through legal representation, community partnerships, education, and other advocacy. Our Longview office serves Cowlitz and Wahkiakum Counties.

NJP seeks applications from qualified attorneys committed to supporting our mission through the work in our Longview office. This is a regular full-time position covered by NJP's collective bargaining agreement. This position is funded for up to one year from the start date, or until December 31, 2026, whichever comes first.

JOB DUTIES:

The Longview staff attorney will undertake a range of duties including, but not limited to:

- Work collaboratively with the Longview team and all NJP staff to provide day-to-day legal assistance and direct representation to eligible clients referred to the Longview office in all relevant forums, including state, federal, and appellate courts, and administrative agencies.
- Use strategic methods and a broad range of advocacy tools in multiple forums to address high priority client needs, with particular focus on legal needs of persons and groups that experience special barriers to accessing civil legal services, including immigrants, youth, seniors, disabled persons, and other groups.
- Develop collaborative working relationships with a statewide network of advocates working on similar issues throughout the state; participate in advocacy task forces or work groups to address systemic issues that affect seniors, low-income persons, and communities in Washington.

- Engage with client communities and participate in legal education events for client groups, social and human services providers, justice system stakeholders, and serve as a resource to other advocates on areas of current or acquired expertise.
- Utilize NJP's case management and timekeeping systems and comply with all applicable regulatory requirements and reporting needs.
- Help identify and develop on-line resources for use by attorneys and/or unrepresented litigants on matters within areas of expertise.
- Support the work of NJP partners including the local volunteer lawyer program, private attorneys, programs serving the needs of unrepresented litigants, other legal aid providers and interested parties and organizations addressing the legal needs of low-income persons.
- Work collaboratively with other units at NJP when needed to support our values and mission to serve low-income clients throughout Washington State.

NJP has adopted the Washington Race Equity and Justice Initiative (REJI) and is organizationally committed to fight racism and to incorporate equity and inclusion in our advocacy work and our internal systems and work environment. NJP expects all staff to uphold the REJI commitments and approach their role with a desire to learn and grow in this area.

Qualifications:

- Washington State Bar Association membership in good standing, the ability to acquire membership through admission by motion, or ability to take the next Washington bar exam is required.
- Prior experience in all aspects of civil litigation with emphasis on issues that impact low-income persons in Washington is a plus.
- Family Law experience is preferred. Public Benefits, Housing, Employment, and/or Civil Rights Law experience is a plus.
- Experience in affirmative litigation in state or federal court and experience in addressing systemic issues is a plus.
- Civil legal aid or related advocacy experience is preferred.
- Applicants should be culturally competent and have work experience or lived experience with low-income client communities, communities of color, limited English speakers and/or persons with disabilities.
- Willingness to work in Longview and travel throughout Cowlitz and Wahkiakum Counties is necessary.

Demonstrated experience and/or connection to NJP's client communities is preferred. Northwest Justice Project is interested in qualified candidates with professional, personal and/or service experience that allows them to contribute to and support the legal aid community's commitment to race equity. Must be willing to be engaged with the community to be served.

COMPENSATION: Starting salary is based upon years of experience, with an annual salary range of $83,548 to $146,692. NJP offers compensation for those who are regularly asked to use a language other than English in their work. We offer a comprehensive benefits package which includes 100% paid employee health premiums and significant premium shares for family health premiums, as well as generous time off.

Hours of work: NJP's typical client office hours are 9:00 – 5:00, Monday through Friday. Attorney positions are exempt and those in the position are expected to work the hours needed to meet the professional responsibilities.

To Apply: Please send a cover letter that includes descriptions of any experience, personal or professional, with low-income or other marginalized communities, resume, and writing sample to attorneyresume@nwjustice.org

Application Deadline: Open until filled. Preference will be given to applications received by October 31, 2025.

NJP is committed to a policy of equal opportunity and fosters an environment free of barriers and discriminatory practices. NJP actively promotes mutual respect, acceptance, teamwork and productivity. NJP is committed to maintaining an organization whose staff, Board and clients are diverse in background, experience, race, color, national origin, gender, age, religious preference, marital status, sexual orientation, sensory, mental or physical abilities, veteran status, and other qualities that strengthen the program while reinforcing its commitment to basic fairness. People of color, people who identify as transgender, lesbian, gay, or bisexual, and those with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Individuals needing a reasonable accommodation for the application or interview process or for more information about the project should contact Human Resources by calling (206) 464-1519 or e-mailing attorneyresume@nwjustice.org